Subscribe to Open (S2O)

An equitable open access model

How does it work?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Open access publishing commences after all subscription renewals are received. ● Continuous open access is sustained if subscription targets are achieved. ● Subscriber-only access applies if subscription targets fall short. ● Pricing is established in a transparent way to balance the costs of publication – libraries are involved in the process through an independent committee.
Benefits for subscribers	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Institutions support the journal to benefit the academic community and demonstrate commitment to open access. ● Subscribers are guaranteed perpetual access to purchased content. ● Accepted articles ahead of publication and non-open archive content are accessible exclusively to subscribers. ● Yearly transparency reports provide a range of financial and other information of interest to librarians who are supporting the program.
Benefits for authors	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Provided subscriptions are renewed, authors publish in S2O journals in open access, free of charge (no APCs). ● CC-BY 4.0 license lets authors keep copyright. ● License ensures compliance with institutional or funder open access mandates. ● Open access enhances article reach, visibility, and impact.
Benefits for the community	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Supports open access and open science through a diversity of publishing models, safeguarding scientific autonomy. ● Aligns with the mathematics community values. ● Addresses rising demand for open access publication, including Plan S requirements. ● Encourages a diverse and inclusive scholarly environment by removing financial obstacles.
How can I support S2O?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● New subscribers may join the mathematics S2O programme at any time by contacting subscribers@edpsciences.org ● Increased participation sustains the S2O model and ongoing open access publication.
